2 GENERAL

- 2.1 These Terms and Conditions apply to and form an integral part of all offers and quotations of DEPT®, Agreements and any other legal acts related thereto between DEPT® and the Client or its legal successor. The specific Annexes also apply as agreed between DEPT® and Client. If this general part of these Conditions is contrary or incompatible as regards any aspect with the provisions in the Annex agreed between DEPT® and the Client, the provisions in the Annex(es) concerned will prevail.
- 2.2 If these Conditions state that an act must be carried out in writing, this is deemed to refer to email as well. Electronic communication between the Parties will be deemed to have been received on the day it was sent, unless proof to the contrary is furnished.
- 2.3 Any departures from these Conditions are only valid if they have been agreed explicitly in writing by DEPT® and the Client, and they only apply to the specific Agreement for which they were agreed.
- 2.4 The Client's generally applied purchase or other conditions do not apply to any legal relationship between the Parties.
- 2.5 Once these Conditions have been applied to a legal relationship between DEPT® and the Client, the Client is deemed to have agreed in advance to the applicability of these Conditions to any Agreements concluded or to be concluded thereafter.
- 2.6 If and insofar as any provision in these Conditions is declared to be null and void or is annulled, the other provisions in these Conditions will remain in full force. In that case the Parties will consult to determine a new provision to replace the provision that is null and void or that has been annulled, thereby taking the purport of the void or annulled provision into account as far as possible.
- 2.7 In the event of a conflict between provisions in an Agreement and these Conditions, the provisions in the Agreement will prevail. In the event of a conflict between these Conditions and a specific Annex, the provisions in the specific Annex(es) will prevail.
- 2.8 DEPT® is authorised to amend these Conditions. The Client will be informed to that effect in writing.
- 2.9 The applicability of Articles 7:404, 7:407 paragraph 2 and 7:409 of the Dutch Civil Code is hereby excluded.

3 QUOTATIONS AND FORMATION OF THE AGREEMENT

- 3.1 Quotations and other offers by DEPT® are without obligation and must be regarded as an invitation to enter into an Agreement, unless DEPT® has explicitly indicated otherwise in writing.
- 3.2 Offers and quotations lose their validity four (4) weeks after their date, unless otherwise indicated in writing.
- 3.3 The Client guarantees that the details disclosed by, or on behalf of it, to DEPT®, on which DEPT® has based its offer, are correct and complete. If those details should prove not to be correct or complete, DEPT® is entitled to modify the offer.
- 3.4 An Agreement is formed by written confirmation from the Client of an unmodified valid quotation and/or offer made by DEPT®.
- 3.5 Commissions issued by the Client are irrevocable.

- 3.6 DEPT® is authorised at all times to terminate negotiations without stating reasons and without being liable for any damage caused as a result, and without being obliged to continue negotiations.

4 PERFORMANCE OF THE AGREEMENT AND DELIVERY

- 4.1 DEPT® will perform the Agreement to the best of its knowledge and ability and in accordance with the standards of the profession, such on the basis of the latest scientific and technical knowledge. The obligations of DEPT® on the basis of the Agreement should be interpreted as a duty to perform. Any arrangements about a Service level will always be agreed in writing in a Service Level Agreement.
- 4.2 In the Agreement the Parties will determine the delivery term and delivery dates as well as the place and manner in which the Services will be delivered and/or provided. The duration of an assignment depends on various factors and circumstances, such as the quality of the data and information disclosed by the Client and the cooperation of the Client and relevant third parties. The aforementioned delivery terms are therefore not strict deadlines. In the event that a delivery term or other term is exceeded, or is likely to be exceeded, the Parties will consult with each other as soon as possible in order to take suitable measures. Delay, for whatever reason, with respect to agreed delivery times does not give any entitlement to compensation, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing.
- 4.3 If it has been agreed that the Agreement will be performed in phases, DEPT® is authorised to postpone the commencement of the Services that form part of a subsequent phase until the Client has approved the results of the prior phase in writing.
- 4.4 DEPT® is not obliged to follow instructions that alter or add to the content or scope of the agreed Services; if such instructions are followed, the activities concerned will be paid in accordance with DEPT®'s usual rates and DEPT® will notify the Client of this situation.
- 4.5 DEPT® is entitled to have the Agreement carried out by third parties wholly or in part, or to engage third parties for the performance of the Agreement.
- 4.6 Services will be deemed by the Parties to have been accepted if the Client has not substantiated in writing and in detail, within five (5) working days after delivery of the Services concerned, the reason(s) why the Services have not been accepted. If the Services are not accepted and the Client can sufficiently demonstrate that the Services provided do not fulfil the Agreement, DEPT® must replace or adapt the Services within a reasonable deadline. If the Client again does not accept the Services, the Parties will perform the acceptance procedure again. This procedure will be repeated if the Client again substantiates, during the new acceptance test, the reason(s) why the Services provided do not fulfil the Agreement.

5 PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

- 5.1 All prices are exclusive of turnover tax (VAT) and other government levies. The prices are based on performance during normal working hours.
- 5.2 Work which is not stated in the quotation is not covered by the Agreement and may lead to an overall price increase.
- 5.3 Unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing, price indications, estimates, budgets and/or cost estimates issued by DEPT® are merely for information purposes, and no rights or expectations may be derived from them. Only if the Parties have so agreed is DEPT® obliged to inform the Client when a cost estimate or estimate will be exceeded.
- 5.4 All prices indicated in writing or electronically by DEPT® are subject to programming and typing errors or spelling mistakes. DEPT® is not bound by such errors and/or spelling mistakes.
- 5.5 The Parties will set down in the Agreement the date or dates on which DEPT® will charge the fee for Services to the Client. The Client will pay invoices in accordance with the terms of payment stated on the invoice. In the absence of a specific arrangement, the Client will pay within fourteen (14) days after the invoice date. All payments will be made without any deduction, suspension or set off.
- 5.6 The payments made by the Client will first be used to pay all due interest and costs, and then the payable invoices which have been outstanding the longest, even if the Client states that the payment relates to a later invoice.
- 5.7 If the Client does not pay the amounts due on time, the Client will be in default and will owe statutory commercial interest on the outstanding amount, without any demand or notice of default being required. If after a demand the Client still fails to pay the claim, DEPT® may refer the debt for collection, in which case the Client will be obliged to pay, in addition to the total amount due, all judicial and extrajudicial costs, including costs of external experts.

- 5.8 DEPT® is entitled to retain Services that are still in its possession if the Client does not comply with its payment obligation, regardless of whether the arrears are related to the Services retained by DEPT®.
- 5.9 During the term of an Agreement, DEPT® is authorised to increase and/or index the prices for its Services each year with effect from 1 January of the previous year, in conformity with the price index figure for that preceding calendar year as published by Statistics Netherlands (CBS) (consumer price index for 'all households'), plus a maximum of twenty-five percent (25%). DEPT® is entitled to implement the cost increase at a later date if it finds this desirable from an administrative point of view.
- 5.10 Comments or complaints about invoices, bills and fee statements must be made known in writing within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the invoice, bill or fee statement concerned, failing which they will be deemed to have been accepted. Such complaints do not suspend the obligation to make payment.
- 5.11 DEPT® is entitled to send the Client interim invoices and/or to invoice on the basis of advance payments, to offset or to require security for compliance by the Client.
- 5.12 The Client agrees to electronic invoicing by DEPT®.
- 5.13 In the event that the financial position of the Client changes during the performance of the Agreement, DEPT® will be entitled to forgo further execution of the Agreement wholly or partially or to change the terms of payment.
- 6. CHANGES TO THE ASSIGNMENT AND/OR EXTRA WORK
- 6.1 The Client accepts that the time schedule of the Agreement may be affected if the scope of the Agreement is expanded and/or altered while the Agreement is still being performed. If the interim alteration affects the agreed remuneration, DEPT® will report this as quickly as possible to the Client.
- 6.2 If on the basis of an alteration to the Agreement as a result of extra requests or wishes on the part of the Client DEPT® must carry out extra work (additional work), this work will be charged to the Client on the basis of actual costs at the usual rates that apply at that time, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing.
- 7 OBLIGATIONS OF THE CLIENT
- 7.1 The Client will ensure that all data and/or information that DEPT® has indicated are necessary, or which the Client reasonably ought to understand will be necessary for the performance of the Agreement, including information about legislation or regulations to be complied with by DEPT® that applies specifically to the Client's field of work, are disclosed to DEPT® in good time, and the Client will cooperate with DEPT® insofar as the latter requires. Quotations and offers issued by DEPT® as well as the Agreement concluded afterwards are based on the information disclosed by the Client. DEPT® is not liable for loss or damage which arises due to it basing work on inaccurate and/or incomplete details and information provided by the Client.
- 7.2 If data needed for the performance of the Agreement is not disclosed to DEPT® in good time, DEPT® is entitled to suspend performance of the Agreement and/or to charge to the Client the extra costs arising from the delay at the usual rates that apply at that time.
- 7.3 Insofar as, within the framework of the Agreement, DEPT® discloses user names and/or passwords, the Client is responsible for these user names and/or passwords and is entirely liable for any misuse made of the user names or passwords, unless such misuse is the result of intent or gross negligence on the part of DEPT®.
- 7.4 Insofar as DEPT® discloses user names and/or passwords within the framework of the Agreement, the Client is prohibited from disclosing these user names and/or passwords to third parties without DEPT®'s consent.
- 8 TERMINATION, PREMATURE TERMINATION AND THE RELATED CONSEQUENCES
- 8.1 An Agreement takes effect on the date stated in Article 3 for the period agreed in writing between the Parties and ends by operation of law on the date agreed by the Parties or when the provision of Services has been completed.
- 8.2 Unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing, the Parties can terminate the Agreement prematurely in writing due regard for a period of notice of three (3) months. If the Client terminates the Agreement prematurely, DEPT® is entitled to charge cancellation costs.
- 8.3 DEPT® is entitled to dissolve the Agreement wholly or in part with immediate effect, without judicial intervention and without being obliged to pay any compensation, if the Client is declared bankrupt or is granted a suspension of payments, as well as if the Client's business is closed down or liquidated other than for the purposes of reconstruction or merger of companies, or if the decisive control of the Client's business changes.
- 8.4 The Agreement may only be dissolved on the basis of attributable failure after a written notice of default has been sent that is as detailed as possible, with a reasonable term being set for fulfilment or remedy of the failure after all, unless these Conditions or the law provide otherwise.
- 8.5 If the Agreement is dissolved, anything that DEPT® has delivered and/or carried out as well as the related payment obligation will not be undone, unless the Client proves that DEPT® is in default with regard to the material part of those Services. Amounts which DEPT® has invoiced before the dissolution, in connection with that which it has already and properly carried out or delivered for the performance of the Agreement, will continue to be payable, with due regard for the provisions of the previous sentence, and will become immediately due and payable at the moment of dissolution.
- 8.6 If the Agreement is dissolved, all rights granted to the Client will cease to have effect. The Client will no longer be authorised to make use of the Service.
- 8.7 Articles that, by their nature, are intended to continue to apply after the end of the Agreement will remain fully effective after the Agreement is terminated.
- 9 IP RIGHTS
- 9.1 Unless explicitly determined otherwise in the Agreement, all IP rights to all the Services provided within the framework of the Agreement, as well as all other materials or information which DEPT® has made available will be vested exclusively in DEPT® and/or its licensors.
- 9.2 Nothing in these Conditions and/or the Agreement implies a transfer of IP Rights. The Client will obtain solely the non-exclusive and non-transferable right of use to the Services for the purposes stipulated in the Agreement and on the conditions stipulated in the Agreement. Unless explicitly stipulated otherwise in writing, the right of use granted applies only for the Netherlands.
- 9.3 The Client is not permitted to remove and/or alter any identifiers concerning IP Rights from the results of Services.
- 9.4 DEPT® explicitly does not relinquish its personality rights referred to in Article 25 of the Dutch Copyright Act [Auteurswet].
- 9.5 DEPT® is permitted to use the Services and the materials used for the implementation of the Agreement, such as designs, drawings, films, software, files whether electronic or otherwise, reports, formats and interviews, for purposes of its own promotion and/or publicity, unless otherwise stipulated in the Agreement.
- 9.6 DEPT® reserves the right to introduce technical protective measures into the Services. The Client is not permitted to circumvent these technical protective measures or to offer means to do so.
- 10 PRIVACY
- 10.1 If within the framework of performing the Services, DEPT® has to process Personal Data of customers of the Client, DEPT® must be deemed to be the 'processor' [verwerker] within the meaning of Section 4 (8) of the General Data Protection Regulation [Algemene verordening gegevensbescherming] and the Client must be deemed to be the 'controller' [verwerkersverantwoordelijke].
- 10.2 The Client guarantees to DEPT® that the data are not unlawful and that they do not infringe the rights of third parties. The Client indemnifies DEPT® against all legal action or claims by third parties, including supervisory authorities and data subjects, on any basis whatsoever, in connection with the processing of this data within the framework of the Agreement.
- 10.3 Pursuant to the legislation on the processing of Personal Data (such as the the General Data Protection Regulation), the Client has obligations to third parties, such as the obligation to disclose information, and to allow data subjects to inspect, correct and remove their Personal Data. The responsibility for complying with these obligations lies fully and solely with the Client. To the extent technically possible, DEPT® will cooperate with the obligations to be complied with by the Client, including transmitting requests from third parties within the framework of the Client's obligations. The costs associated with such cooperation will be fully borne by the Client.
- 10.4 DEPT® will take appropriate technical and organisational measures, or have them taken by third parties, and will maintain them and if necessary adjust them, to protect the Personal Data that it processes on the instructions of the Client in order to prevent unlawful processing. DEPT® will not process the Personal Data obtained from the Client for its own purposes.
- 10.5 DEPT® will discuss with the Client the appropriate technical and organisational measures to be taken for the protection of Personal Data from loss or from any other form of unlawful processing.
- 10.6 The Client acknowledges that it has full knowledge of the technical and organisational measures to be carried out by DEPT® and herewith declares that these measures will guarantee a suitable level of protection, taking into consideration the state of the art and the costs of implementation and having regard to the risks involved in the processing and the nature of the data to be protected.
- 10.7 If, despite the fact that DEPT® has implemented the agreed appropriate measures, a security incident occurs involving i) destruction, ii) loss, iii) falsification, iv) unauthorised distribution of and/or access to, or v) any other form of unlawful processing of Personal Data, the Client cannot hold DEPT® liable for any damage sustained as a result of such incident.
- 10.8 If the Client explicitly requests measures which, in the opinion of DEPT®, cannot be regarded as suitable technical and organisational measures, the implementation thereof will be entirely for the account and risk of the Client, and DEPT® does not accept any liability for any damage suffered by the Client or third parties.
- 10.9 The Client indemnifies DEPT® in full against all claims by third parties, including but not limited to penalties imposed by regulators that are in any way based on the assertion that the technical and organisational measures taken by DEPT® as referred to in Article 10.8 are not appropriate and/or are otherwise not adequate.

11 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 11.1 The Parties will treat all information they obtain from one another, in any form whatsoever - written, verbal, electronic or physical - including but not limited to software, (source) codes, programs, applications, customer details, know-how, technical specifications, documentation ('Confidential Information') as strictly confidential, and will keep it secret during the term of the Agreement and for five (5) years after the end of the Agreement.
- 11.2 The Parties will only use the Confidential Information for the purposes for which it was disclosed and in doing so will observe at least the same duty of care and safeguards that apply to their own internal confidential information. The Parties will only disclose the Confidential Information to employees, and employees of affiliated businesses and subcontractors, insofar as is necessary within the framework of the (implementation of the) Agreement. Comparable provisions in relation to confidentiality must be imposed on these employees and subcontractors.
- 11.3 The obligations to maintain secrecy with regard to the Confidential Information do not apply insofar as the receiving Party can demonstrate that the information concerned:
 - i) was already known to it when it was received;
 - ii) was already publicly known when it was received;
 - iii) became publicly known after receipt and this is not attributable to the receiving Party;
 - iv) was received in a lawful manner from third parties along with the right to communicate it publicly without any obligation to maintain secrecy;

- 12.6 Unless fulfilment by DEPT® is permanently impossible, liability on the part of DEPT® due to attributable failure in the fulfilment of an Agreement will only arise after the Client has immediately placed DEPT® in default in writing, whereby a reasonable deadline for rectification of such failure has been set and DEPT® continues, even after such deadline, to fail culpably in the fulfilment of its obligations. The notice of default must include as complete and detailed a description of the failure as possible, so that DEPT® has the opportunity to respond adequately.
- 12.7 Any right to compensation is always subject to the Client reporting the damage as quickly as possible, but in any event within thirty (30) days after it has arisen. If DEPT® is not informed by the aforementioned deadline, DEPT® will be released from any liability in connection with said damage. Any claim for compensation against DEPT® will cease to exist simply by the passage of twelve (12) months after the claim arose.
- 12.8 The Client bears the full risk and responsibility for its use of the Services. DEPT® does not accept any liability for use of the Services by the Client. The Client indemnifies DEPT® against any claims by third parties in connection with the performance of the Agreement and/or resulting from the use of the Services by the Client.
- 12.9 The Client indemnifies DEPT® against all third-party claims due to product liability as a consequence of a defect in a product or system supplied by the Client to third parties and which consisted partly of equipment, software or other materials supplied by DEPT®, unless and insofar as the Client proves that the damage was caused by said equipment, software or other materials.
- 12.10 The provisions in this article, as well as all other liability restrictions and exclusions referred to in these Conditions, also apply for the benefit of all legal entities/persons which DEPT® serves during the performance of the Agreement.

- 13.4 If DEPT® can still perform in part at the time of the force majeure, or if it has performed, it is authorised to perform this Service and to invoice it separately, as if it concerned a separate Agreement.
